MONICA

Monica is one girl who has kept herself well within the anthropological tradition of heat. She goes crazy, "fucks like a maniac" when she's on her period. "I feel like a real chimpanzee sometimes," she says, "just because when I'm on my menses, my pussy gets all thick and swollen and responds

"Some guys can't stop laughing when they see me lubricating the soles of my feet, because they can't imagine what I'm about to do, and whatever it is, they're sure it's going to be pretty outrageous. Well, what I do is take to stroking their cocks in long, smooth strokes between my soft, greasy soles, and when I see they're riding high, about to jack-off to high heaven, I sometimes get that cock up into the heat of my beautiful ass and ride it till they're beggin me to stop."

PUDDING HEAVENS

"The only dream I have any more," said Carly, "is to be able to suckle one man and fuck his brains out at the same time—while he's asleep."
